4.5-5 hours	$129.00 (ages 10 and up)	$109.00 (ages 0-9)	All ages; Under 3 charged	Mild

- Take a 60-minute boat ride (approximate) past the villages named the "Cinque Terre" 5 small towns that seem frozen in time. Declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site, these historic villages are brimming with old stone walls, winding paths, enchanting beaches and buildings that pepper the rocky cliffs.
- First stop will be the village of Vernazza, where you can admire the elaborate architecture, a remnant of times when the city was under Genoese rule. Note: Depending on sea conditions, the cruise portion of the excursion may be substituted with a motor coach tour. If this is the case, you will visit Riomaggiore instead of Vernazza and will walk along the "Passeggiata dell'Amore" ('Lovers' Promenade') to reach the village of Manarola. If the tour is changed, it will involve an additional 1.5 miles of walking.
- After an hour of guided exploration descend back to the port, and take a short 10-minute cruise to the town of Monterosso. This historic city lies on the summit of the hill of San Cristoforo, which separates the town into the old and new. On your 45-minute walking tour, wander the quaint winding streets as your guide shows you the points of interest.
- Enjoy approximately 30 minutes of free time.
